Dear Principal,

I am writing to extend our sincere congratulations for your school alumnus below in being admitted to the University programme in Hong Kong.

English Name : HO Wing Lam
Chinese Name : 何詠琳
University : Hong Kong Baptist University
Programme : Bachelor of Business Administration

We believe that many factors contributed to the student's success, one of which was the quality foundation the student received in primary school. We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your valuable contribution in shaping the student's attitude and sense of responsibility, while encouraging patience, honesty and a commitment to life-long learning.

Please accept my heartfelt congratulations on the student's success.

We look forward to receiving future students from your outstanding primary school. As an encouragement to other students of your school, we would appreciate it if you could share this good news with the school community.

Yours sincerely,

CHOW Ka Kui

Principal, Kau Yan College
