

"Yili Doll" is a lovely doll, so a lot of little girls like this doll very much.

If you push the button on Yili's nose, she will talk to you.

One rainy day, Merle was at home, alone. She was bored, so she pushed the doll's nose.

'Hello! I'm Yili! I'll go to your home!' Yili said.

'Can it only say this?' Merle was so disappointed so she pushed its nose again.

'Hello! I'm Yili! I'm outside your door!' Yili said something new.

'Oh! Its words have changed!' Merle thought it was so interesting, so she pushed Yili's nose again.

"Hello! I'm Yili! Now, I'm behind you!" Yili said. Only this time, the sound was not coming out from the doll. It was... was behind her!

Merle turned around and found that something was behind her. Oh, my god! The doll was moving towards her!

The next day, Merle was found dead. Her mum still didn't know why her child died.
